

Win the War! Overcome 3 Battle Wounds Fathers Face

Eric Wallace, eric@uchlink.org

The First Wound is FAILURE: Our poor performance as a father. This includes things we've done wrong, but also things we should have done but didn't do.

The Battle Plan for Overcoming Failure.

① _____.

2 Cor. 5:21. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

That Jesus is our _____ positions us to do two very important things.

First. _____.

Second. _____.

Which _____ are you standing on as a father? Yours—or _____ for you?

The Second Wound is FEAR: Lack of confidence in my ability to lead my children and to actually make a difference in their lives.

The Battle Plan for Overcoming Fear.

② _____.

- Depend on the ultimate power tool: _____.

See Isaiah 55:11, Hebrews 4:12, Romans 1:16.

The Third Wound is FAITHLESSNESS: Not being intentional about disciplining my children.

The Battle Plan for Overcoming Faithlessness.

③ _____.

- Think _____.

See Phil. 1:6.

- Make fathering _____. "Schedule your priorities, not prioritize your schedule."

- Start a _____ where you make regular notes about issues each child is facing and how you are helping them.

- _____.

The Battle Plan for overcoming Failure, Fear, and Faithlessness can be summed up in one word:

_____!
